

The NAB is completely out of line. Satellitte radio is a necessity for those locales that are out of reach of radio stations. Further, local braodcasting is not always extensive or varied enough for everyone.